

With the Alert Boy Scouts of Maui

(By W. H. Hutton, Scout Executive.)

Monthly Reports

A splendid report of the month of April was received this week from Scoutmaster Martin of Troop 2 at Puunene.

It shows a gain of four new members and the following promoted to second class scouts: Kuroku Fujiyoshi, Megumi Shimomura, Kenzo Hazama, Hitoshi Masuoka, Susumu Inaba, Paul Carvalho, Teiji Ito and Ichiro Maehara.

Nobuto Tanaka was transferred to Troop 10 at Wailuku on account of change of residence.

Friday afternoon the executive took five scouts from troop two to the Needle at Iao for a three days week end camp.

Paul Carvalho had an opportunity to show how much he knew of first aid. One night last week a man had a bad fainting spell at one of the Puunene camps. Paul went to the rescue. Paul said he tried to follow the first aid rules, keep cool and use common sense. He is sure he followed the second rule but it quite positive that he did not keep cool. He said he was awfully nervous and shook all over. "But," says Paul, "If I ever have a chance to help any one else who faints I will keep cool because I have had some real practical experience."

Won't some one please hurry up and faint so that Paul can demonstrate that he knows what he is talking about?

Troop Doings

Bronco Busters, Troop 6

A dandy meeting. Mr. Langa our scoutmaster put the boys to work outdoors on their first class cooking tests and well all had a dandy time in eating the grub. So far no one has been ill.

After this we had our regular meeting in the scout house and talked over our program for the big event in June.

L. DE COSTA, Scribe.

Troop 5, Lahaina

Troop assembled in Armory quite late. As usual we had the roll call and dues were collected amounting to $1.75.

Twenty-nine scouts were present and three absent. The treasurer gave a report of the money in the troop fund. Some of the scouts were sworn in as second class scouts. Later the scoutmaster passed several scouts in their nature study on stars. Most of them were successful in locating the different constellations. Several other tests were passed such as first aid and some tenderfoot tests. The scouts then sang songs and we were dismissed at 9:10 p. m.

Hamakuapoko

Mr. Emil Davis is going to be scoutmaster of Troop 11, at Hamakuapoko. This is a fine bunch of lively interested boys, and they will make a record to be proud of. The troop committee is composed of the following men: J. J. Corell, H. W. Baldwin and W. K. Watkins. It is needless to state that all these men are deeply interested in their troop and will do all that is in their power to make it successful. Mr. Baldwin and Mr. Watkins are attending to the matter of having some benches made and electric lights put in one of the vacant rooms of the school house. Think of it, no desks but real benches where we have lots of leg room and can move them around to make room for tests, etc.

Tonight the troop will form into patrols and elect leaders, etc.

This has been a busy week in scouting, but, who is to blame if the notes are not published in this column?

Troop 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8 and 9 sent in no notes.

Next week the executive will send a booby prize to the troops who do not send in notes of their meetings.

Wailuku Troop 10

Friday night, May 5th, Pop visited us and we were greatly pleased of his coming and deeply interested in his instructions. He gave all the necessary knowledge on first aid very distinctly and clearly that at the end, we didn't find it so hard to pass this test as we thought, though it requires some studying. After he gave all the instructions necessary. He passed three of the boys who were ready, and said he is proud of our troop and will do all what he can for us. While he was asking questions to the three scouts in the adjoining room, the rest as usual said the scout oath and the roll was called, the minutes of the previous meeting read by the scribe and then each patrol had their chances to go over the signalling for there might be some one forgetting, and it was true, mistakes were plenty but we will try not again to forget.

The meeting adjourned at 9:00 P. M. in the usual manner. We are "To help other people at all times".

The radio set at headquarters is in fine working order now. A two step amplification set has been installed and the messages are received loud and clear. Boyd, the main bug who is running the set, is in his seventh heaven. He hardly takes time to eat or sleep. Messages from the coast are as clear as those formerly heard from Honolulu.

Ray Harry who is another radio bug spends most of his spare time at the instrument. We are going to keep on improving until we have an A-1 set. Scouts are studying the code now and we soon will have a large crop of bugs on Maui. We wish to inform the plantation managers that these bugs will in no way injure the cane crops. If there is any doubt in the matter we are willing to have the bugs examined by their experts.
